

Air Canada Selects Navtech's Class™ Preferential Bidding System

Navtech, Inc. (OTCBB: NAVH) awarded major contract with Air Canada.

Waterloo, Ontario, January 18, 2005 - Navtech, Inc. announced that Air Canada, Canada's largest airline, has signed a long-term agreement with Navtech to provide crew management solutions. The agreement includes the use of CLASS™, Navtech's preferential bidding system, by flight attendants at Air Canada and their regional airline, Air Canada Jazz.

"This contract validates Navtech's preferential bidding system as a market leading product, and our ability to deliver superior solutions to major airlines," said David Strucke, Navtech's President and CEO. "Air Canada and Jazz are highly respected airlines and we are delighted to welcome them as Navtech customers."

Over 8,000 flight attendants at Air Canada and Air Canada Jazz will use CLASS™ to bid their scheduling preferences via the Internet. Air Canada together with its regional airline, Air Canada Jazz, operate an average of over 1300 flights per day serving more than 150 destinations across Canada and around the world.

"Selecting the Navtech system aligns with Air Canada's objectives to both reduce costs, and to utilize proven technologies to e-enable our workforce," said Steve Smith, Senior Vice President, Customer Experience, Air Canada. This new preferential bidding system gives us a cost efficient web-based scheduling tool that will at the same time provide our flight crews with more control over their monthly schedules."

About Navtech

Navtech creates and supports superior flight operations software for airlines. Navtech's software provides a competitive edge to airlines by facilitating significant cost savings in fuel consumption and crew planning, two areas that represent a majority of an airline's variable operating expenditures. With over 100 customers spanning more than 25 countries, Navtech's software directly supports millions of flights around the globe each year. Navtech and its employees understand the importance of creating solid partnerships between the company and its customers. Navtech has approximately 100 employees with offices in the United States, Canada, Singapore and the United Kingdom.
