

Navtech Reports New Contracts with Asia Pac Airlines

Waterloo, Ontario, March 14, 2005 - Navtech, Inc. (OTCBB: NAVH), a leading international provider of aviation software, announced further successes with its growth strategy in the Asia Pac region.

Navtech has recently established long term contracts with leading airlines in the region, including Air Asia (Malaysia), Air Sahara (India) and Orient-Thai (Thailand). Previously announced Navtech customers in the region include Qantas subsidiary Jetstar (Australia), and Valuair (Singapore)

Air Asia and Orient-Thai have chosen Navtech's DispatchPro™ software for flight planning and V1Plus™ aircraft performance services. Air Sahara will also use V1Plus™ services and has chosen Navtech's web-based WebFP™ for flight planning.

"The response to our products in the Asia Pac market has been exceptional," said David Strucke, Navtech's President and CEO, "In a relatively short period of time, we have established a significant market presence."

"Our systems help airlines achieve significant cost savings," added Mr. Strucke, "and the deregulation of the airline industry in the Asia Pac region has created opportunities for companies that can deliver effective tools for cost containment."

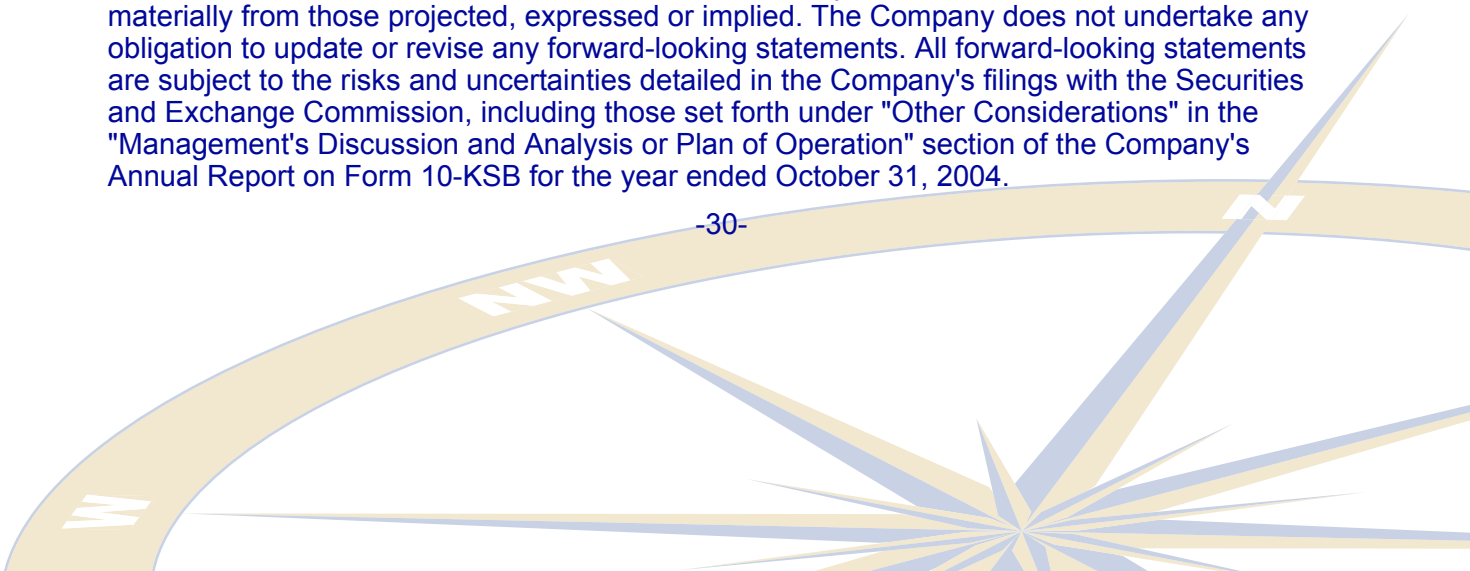

Navtech's dispatch suite of software provides airlines with decision support tools that facilitate cost-effective flight operations and easy access to critical information on flight planning, weather, communications and runway analysis.

About Navtech

Navtech creates and supports superior flight operations software for airlines. Navtech's software provides a competitive edge to airlines by facilitating significant cost savings in fuel consumption and crew planning, two areas that represent a majority of an airline's variable operating expenditures. With over 100 customers spanning more than 25 countries, Navtech's software directly supports millions of flights around the globe each year. Navtech and its employees understand the importance of creating solid partnerships between the company and its customers. Navtech has approximately 100 employees with offices in the United States, Canada, Singapore and the United Kingdom.
