C.B. Richard Ellis "Innovation" award

Waterloo, February 21, 2008 – Navtech is pleased to announce that it has received the C.B. Richard Ellis Innovation Award at the Greater Kitchener Waterloo Chamber of Commerce Business Excellence Awards ceremony. The award is presented to the company that is a Chamber member company in good standing and who best demonstrates the creation of innovative products which have resulted in significant and measurable increases in revenue, job creation, productivity and/or improvement in service. David Strucke, Navtech President & CEO, was present with Management and Staff to accept the award.

Chamber President & CEO Todd Letts had this to say in the award ceremony playbill, "Tonight is all about recognizing the achievements of those that have 'made it'; encouraging the efforts of future leaders; and celebrating the accomplishments of the business community in bringing new prosperity to our region."

"This is our 2nd business excellence award in three months. At Navtech we strive to be innovative in our industry and to be recognized by our community is the icing on the cake." said David Strucke. "We are very excited to be recognized at such an important event for Waterloo Region."

The Innovation category highlighted six other nominees and the evening included eight other awards. The awards were open to Waterloo Region nominations from other Chamber of Commerce members.
